

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1895.

ONE CENT.

SPECIFIC FOR SCROFULA.

"Since childhood, I have been afflicted with acrofulous boils and sores, which cause me terrible suffering. Physicians were unable to help me, and I only grew worse under their care. At length, I began to take Suppository, and very soon grew better. After using half a dozen bottles I was completely cured, so that I now had not a boil or pimple on any part of my body for the last twelve years. I can cordially recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the very best blood-purifier in existence." — G. T. REINHART, Maysville, Texas.

AYER'S

Mr. W. H. Means is in Cincinnati today.

Mr. Henry Thompson of Mayfield was a caller on THE LEDGER yesterday.

Mr. J. W. Haynes, Treasurer of the C. and O., has been in the city for a few days.

Mrs. William Shepard and son Emmet have returned home after a pleasant visit to her husband at Melbourne.

The C. and O. has established an office at Melbourne.

Mrs. Anna Clayton is ill at her home on East Fifth street.

T. T. Tempkin, formerly of Fern Leaf, has been appointed Jailer of Bourbon county.

Oysters, can and bulk, Celery, fresh Crackers, Fruits, &c., at John O'Keefe's, Market street.

Circuit Court dismissed the state's suit against the Dover and Minerva Turnpike Company.

Hall's Hair Remover cures dandruff and scalp affection; also all sorts of bidences with the glands which feed the roots of the hair are not closed up.

It is now authoritatively announced that Dr. J. P. Huff of Vanceburg is not a candidate for Doorekeeper of the next House of Representatives.

Mr. Frederick Arthur Fitch of Tullahoma and Miss Jessie Helen Fugh, daughter of Hon. Samuel J. Fugh, will be married at Vanceburg next Wednesday evening.

The following telegram received in this city explains itself:

NEW YORK, Nov. 23d, 1895.
Mr. George S. Coker: Sure Linde too ill to sing; must cancel writing.

M. H. HUNSCHE.

Messrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, Pat Sammons, W. S. Watson, H. E. Fugus, Ben T. Cox, Clarence Mathews, H. C. Sharp and Mrs. Sam Daugherty were hunting in the Murphysville neighborhood yesterday.

Mille J. Blythe was yesterday divorced from William E. Blythe, alias William E. Bly. She is to have custody of their two minor children and receive an attorney's fee of $30 and all her costs from Mr. Bly.

The firm of Acker & Frederick has been dissolved. Mr. Frederick taking charge of the slaughtering business and the ice factory on the Fleming pile, while Mr. Acker will continue the meat business on Market street.

You realize that it is a very short time till you expect to make your Christmas gifts! We are getting in beautiful new goods of every description nearly every day and we shall be pleased to have you call and see what we have.

BALLINGER the Jeweller.

The Germantown correspondent of The Bracken Chronicle says that two miles from town on the Germantown and Mayville pile, on the Mrs. Sarah Savage farm, there is a cave, which up to this time has only been explored forty or fifty feet. The entrance is about four feet wide and four or five feet deep, which causes it difficult to explore, but we are reliably informed that it widens out the farther one penetrates the cave. Some few relics have been found, and it might take a party to make a hardy gleaning tour.

THAT'S DIFFERENT.

She says she can't afford a cab—
Expenses she must curb,
Yet when she walks upon the street
Her carriage is superb.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA & AMERICANS!

EVERY traveled and thoughtful and true Kentuckian must appreciate the force of an article which appeared recently in The Times.

Star of Cincinnati, Kentucky
After citing the fact begins a New Era, that the total vote in Kentucky at the late election was the largest ever cast in the state, and yet it was only a little more than one-third of the total vote of Ohio. The writer adds: The fact invites comparison between the two Commonwealths. Their areas are almost the same—Ohio, 41,000 square miles; Kentucky, 40,400 and their natural resources for agricultural, manufacturing and mining purposes are not materially different.

Kentucky has so much the start that she long assumed the attitude of a step-mother to her younger sister, and yet as they close the first century of their statehood Ohio has more than twice the population, more than twice the amount of taxable property and more than three times the annual value of manufactured products, exclusive of whisky, credited to the elder sister.

The difference in material development was due, at least in part, to the difference between the free and slave labor systems of the two states, and though this difference was legally erased a generation ago, Kentucky has been ever since controlled by those in sympathy with the old regime and disposed to perpetuate it as far as practicable.

The state, proverbial for its hospitality to visitors, has not been equally hospitable to immigrants. Manual labor being under a social ban, manufacturing enterprises have not been invited and encouraged as on this side of the river. With the accession of the new party to power there is reason to believe that the state is about to start on a new industrial era. It cannot be expected to overtake Ohio in the race, but it may materially reduce the interval that now separates them.

If the people of Mayaville would only lay aside petty jealousies and pull together, this could be made the busiest city in the state.

When Mrs. LEONINE COOK of Chicago went in bloomers to visit a friend, the dog failed to recognize her and tore her garments to bits, severely biting her. News Item.

A bit of advice given to one who could never find any occupation to suit him: "My dear boy, observe the postage stamp; its usefulness depends upon its ability to stick to one thing until it gets there."

SCHOOL BOYS

Spurred up a Cave-in of a Sand Bank—Two Taken to Hospital, and Two Other Bodily Injured.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 22.—Six school boys were buried by a cave-in of a sand bank at Twenty-eighth and Grayson streets, two being dead when rescued, and two others with fractured bones. The dead: Howard Rammage son of a police officer. Louis Rammage son of a laborer.

The injured: Wm. Rammage, leg broken; Walter Gambrell, arm fractured; Otto Brant and Fred Baker were unharmed.

The boys, whose ages average about 12 years, had been engaged in the excavation of a cave in the sand bank. They had undermined the slope to a considerable extent and all were at work when the cave-in occurred. They were buried. An alarm was sent by witnesses to hook and ladder company No. 8, a few squares away, and the last body was recovered in seven minutes. The wonder is that all were not dead, since they were completely buried beneath the sand.

HUSBAND SUSPECTED.

Mrs. James Dewitt, Mysterious Disappearance—She Was Found in the Woods.

ASHLAND, Ky., Nov. 22.—The dead body of Mrs. James Dewitt was found in the woods six miles beyond Grayson Wednesday night with a shawl wrapped tightly around her, and the marks of choking and beating plainly visible.

She disappeared last Thursday evening after visiting her husband at his boarding house near her mother's home.

The couple have been living apart for some time, her husband having been in search of her and was in the woods when he found the body. Just before the discovery he complained of having a chill and shook so that the search was delayed for some time. Dewitt was found around the same time with a knife. He protests his innocence and claims his wife committed suicide. Execution is intense and if held for the crime he may be lynched.

PARDON FOR HUME CLAY.

Friends of an 8900 Farmer of Bourbon Co., Ky., Working for His Freedom.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 21.—A strong effort if being made to secure a pardon for Hume Clay, the Bourbon county Negro who has been in prison for ten years. There were many mitigating circumstances, and a number of prominent and influential men are interesting themselves in Clay's behalf. Hon. Cassius M. Clay, who helped to secure the pardon, has made a strong personal appeal for clemency. The fact that Hume Clay was sent for Thursday by the governor and spent some time in the executive office is regarded as significant. Clay's forgery aggregated $8000.

He is a Lexington laundryman.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 22.—The bursting of a pipe in the Lexington steam laundry here Thursday caused some resulting seriously. The laundry employs most of the girls, recruited into the shop by the owner, Mr. W. H. Walker, who was building an annex, fell from a wall and was badly hurt about the head, while the arm of Cornelius Rovroy, a Negro, was injured by the falling of a wall. Several others were slightly hurt.

A Memphis Wedding.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 22.—A surprise wedding occurred Thursday afternoon in the parlor of the Windsor hotel, at Paris, the principals being Mr. A. H. Cochran and Miss Maggie Dinnit, both prominent young people of this town. None of their friends knew of the event until it was over.

The Fall Ballad.

PANAMA, Ky., Nov. 22.—Charles McCann, brother of Commodore W. P. McCann, of the United States navy, who was badly injured some days ago by jumping from a moving train at Shawnee station, died Thursday morning.

Hon. Larkin J. Proctor Dead.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 22.—Hon. Larkin J. Proctor died at Proctor's home in Elizabethtown, aged 71. He was the youngest member of the constitutional convention of 1848 and probably the last surviving member of that body.

Fires at Harrodsburg, Ky.

HARRODSBURG, Ky., Nov. 22.—Fire Thursday morning destroyed the dry goods and notions store of A. Field, Losos & Co., located on Main street, George Robard's hardware store adjoining was damaged $10,000; insurance, $2,200.
